

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has immensely improved our quality of life. Before the law, we would get four to six solicitations per day. Now we get one or two a month. Please do not diminish the effectiveness of our current legislation.